

Marine Biodiversity
Conservation Center
AQUARIUM BOKA

Service clusters

Research

- Advises seafood companies on methods to enhance the sustainability of commercial fisheries and trade.
- Hosts various research programmes on Adriatic wild flora and fauna.
- Collaborates with partners around the world to protect ocean ecosystems and establish sea protected areas.

Education

- Showcases the diversity and importance of marine wildlife with particular focus on the Adriatic Sea.
- Inspires visitors with the beauty and complexity of marine ecosystem through replication of various marine habitats.
- Leads a nationwide initiative on climate change and inspire future Adriatic Sea protectors with hands-on programs such as Boka Discoveries Camps, mainly summer camps for students in marine biology

Conservation

- Leads national and regional efforts to rehabilitate and release endangered species.
- Rescues endangered sea species
- Manages breeding and reintroduction programmes for species otherwise endangered or extinct in the wild